

Juno Student Benefits

As a part of Juno College's community, we want to ensure that you feel as supported as possible, and like you have the resources you need to be successful, and work comfortably and effectively - both in our space, and remotely when the need arises.

For that reason, we've compiled a list of companies that offer student discounts on certain products, services, and subscriptions. We hope that this information helps elevate your educational experience, makes your workspace more comfortable, and ensures you have an all-around enjoyable time!

Note: Should you require a letter of enrollment to access any services or discounts, please let us know, and we will happily provide you with one!*

B. Apple

If you are a student, instructor or mentor at Juno College, you can take advantage of Apple's Education Pricing. Apple also offers a monthly student discount for Apple Music - students can enjoy the subscription for $4.99 a month ($9.99 regular).

You won't require any sort of login or ID to order from the Education Store, but Apple can request to see evidence of your student status at any point during or after the purchase and will charge you an additional fee if you fail to provide it.

C. GitHub

As a student, you can also apply for the GitHub Student Developer Pack, which offers free access to tools and services used by professional developers. For more information, see Applying for a student developer pack and GitHub Education.

D. Adobe

As a student, you can receive 60% off of your first year of an Adobe Creative Cloud subscription. All you have to do is call 800-585-0774 for verification instructions, and provide proof of eligibility - this includes a tuition bill/statement, which we will happily provide!

E. Internet Providers

Looking into new internet service providers? A number of companies offer student internet discounts and packages in certain areas. Telus, Rogers, Bell, and Fido are a handful of internet providers with reduced student plans available!

F. Spotify

As a student, you can also enjoy Spotify Premium at a reduced monthly price of $4.99 (regular $9.99), allowing you to download and enjoy unlimited podcasts, music, and more. No ads, no interruptions, and offline access - so you can listen while working without distractions.

G. Microsoft

As a student, you can save up to 10% on microsoft products in their Education Store, to help elevate your remote/home learning experience.

H. Best Buy

Best Buy regularly has a variety of deals and discounts available to students. Unlike some other companies, these deals aren't available at a set percentage or value, but vary throughout the year. We suggest checking their website regularly and often, if you're in the market for a new laptop or other device!

I. Grocery

Most grocery stores are still operating normally, and the following offer student discounts of varying amounts - you will be required to show proof of enrollment/identification:

- Bulk Barn; 10% off on Wednesdays
- Metro; 10% off (day of the week varies by location; ask your local store!)
- Food Basics; 10% off (day of the week varies by location; ask your local store!)

J. Health & Wellness

In the midst of COVID-19, a number of digital wellness companies have stepped up to offer their services for free. Whether mental health, physical health, or overall wellbeing, you may enjoy trying out the following applications:

- Sanvello; an application that can help you manage stress, anxiety, and depression. They are offering premium free service through the COVID-19 crisis, and are available through the Apple Store or Google Play Store.
- Rose Buddha; a company offering their meditation app for free during COVID-19. They offer 90 hours of guided meditation, and the offer can be redeemed using the promo code OSCAR. Available through the Apple Store or Google Play Store
- NEOU; an on-demand/live fitness streaming service, offering unlimited access to all of their classes for free, for 30 days, amidst the closure of gyms and fitness studios.
- Adidas Runtastic; a workout app that allows you to build your own workouts and track your performance. The offer can be redeemed using the code RNT-WBDA-XAVD.
- All Out; a subscription workout video streaming app offering 30 days free. The offer can be redeemed by downloading the app, signing up for a monthly subscription and using the promo code MHFREE30.
